Narbonne Varsity football team was selected as "Team of the Week" beginning Oct. 29 by the Examiner Scholastic Association and was presented a trophy on Nov. 1 by Ira Walsh, member of the Examiner staff. The trophy was won after the Gauchos beat Banning High which was favored over Narbonne. Also taken into consideration was the spirit and attitude of the school. The deciding game was won by 7 to 6. The team of the week, cheerleaders, song leaders, and coach Gordon, Wells of Narbonne appeared on television on Oct. 28. The Yeakel Bros. also furnished the trophies for each Team of the Week.

The trophy stands approximately two feet high. Pat Turner, boys vice-principal at Narbonne, said, "It has helped the school enthusiasm and the kids certainly deserved it. They had worked hard." Team roster lists Frank Anzila, Ed Bayek, Gordon Bayer, Ernest Belt, Don Bourne, Bob Brown, Clary Banks, Neal Cantrell, George Park, Russell Crane, Manuel DeLeon, Bill DeWalsche, Keith Edwards, Fulton Edwards, Bob Garbrant, Mike Gibbons, Bill Gonzales, Jerry Hornung, Ronald Hudson, Tom Jones, Jim Kaul, Jim Kidder, Bill Knocke, Richard Learman, Larry Lewis, Katsuki Mine, Allen Murrell, Roger Myron, Gerald Quimett, Harry Outson, Don Regener, Gordon Routsen, Mike Rutz, Steve Saracco, Mickey Valencia, Kei Wada, Carl Wada, Bill Wettengel, John Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stillely have added a third to their family circle. A baby girl, Violet Ann, was born Oct. 31 in San Antonio, Texas, weighing an even eight pounds.

Mrs. Stillely, the former Louise Newan, was a graduate of Narbonne High School in 1950. Stillely is stationed at the Madena Air Force Base in Texas.

The Kiyabaw group of the Campfire Girls have welcomed two new members. The newcomers, Diana Goodell and Virginia Hubbard, will participate in the various activities throughout the year.

At present the Kiyabawes are working toward their third rank of Fire Maker. One of the twelve requirements for the rank was fulfilled by the Halloween party. Each girl brought a guest, and provided and prepared the refreshments. The party and all activities are under the sponsorship of Mrs. William Gleghorn.

Along with many other groups and individuals, the Candy Strippers are looking toward Christmas. At their meeting Nov. 5, the girls discussed their holiday plans and the caroling to be done at the Harbor General Hospital where they hold their meetings.

The DeMolay fathers and sons banquet attracted nearly 100 persons to hear Mal Whitfield, Olympic track star, speak on sports and the Olympics on Oct. 30.

and served by the Mothers Circle, the group completed the evening by viewing colored scenes from the 1952 Olympics. The film was provided by the Helms Olympic Foundation.

The Firefly Theta Rho Girls Club initiated three new members during their meeting on Nov. 7 at the California Hall.

A ritual ceremony following the pattern set by the Rebekah Lodge made members of Sharon Wilson, Mary Carter, and Kathleen Kelly. Other activity during the evening included rehearsing installation procedures which the girls will need to know when they install the Ingleswood Girls Club officers on Nov. 20. The drill team also practiced.

Refreshments were served by the group advisor, Hattie Scheridu.

The Lion Tamers met Nov. 6 in the home of Pauline Carter to plan the Christmas remembrances of their newly adopted Korean orphan, Kim Uen Ja.

Kim Uen Ja was a lonely seven-year old wandering the streets until the Lion Tamers made it possible for Kim to enter the Dong Min orphanage where she has some brothers staying.

Edna Ferrin is chairman for the orphan project. Donna Steinbach, Jerry Stark, and Winona Swedberg are assisting her in the work.

Mrs. Dessie Myers, president of the Property Owners and Registered Voters, said that the organization is still gathering information concerning the incorporation move.

Mrs. Myers, one of the three signers on the recent refiling of boundaries for incorporation said that while the Property Owners organization opposes the proposed "City of Lomita," they needed the additional time allowed by the refiling to give the borough system bill time to be voted on on Nov. 6. Other co-signers of the refiling were Ray Reed and Leonard Loy.

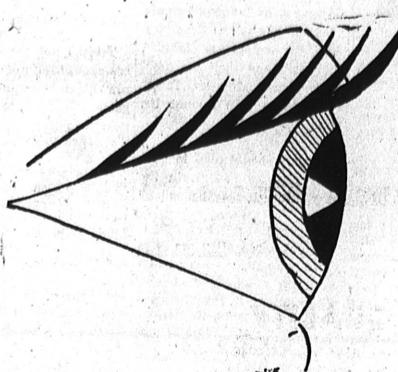

The Women's Association of the Lomita Presbyterian Church was entertained with a skit entitled "We Are the Weavers," enacting the theme of the Whole World depicting world peace.

Players in the skit were Burnell Harbert, Dorothy Weeks, June Betz, Blanche Ganser, and Millicent tambaugh. The program was presented in the social hall of the church on Nov. 2.

Nearly forty persons attended the meeting and were served refreshments by the Evening Circle. The next meeting will be the sixth of December at the Lomita Presbyterian Church.

Cecil King Says He Has Spent No $$

Preliminary reports to the clerk of the House of Representatives revealed this week that Republican nominee Charles Franklin had received and spent $890.19 during the political campaign while incumbent Cecil King listed no expenditures or contributions. The two candidates filed reports on their campaign financed up to the final two weeks prior to the election as required by law.
